

PIPELET Charging Platform Overview

Developed by the US Coast Guard, the PIPELET (Pipeline Inspection and Evaluation) system is a critical tool for maintaining the integrity of offshore oil and gas infrastructure. It is designed to detect and assess damage to subsea pipelines, ensuring safe and efficient operations.